TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

IN GERMANY.

BERLIN, July 1.
The strike of tramways and city railways began this morning. The city was deprived practically of all means of transport. The papers state that the strike movement was organised by the ex-chief of police Eichhorn and engineered by communists with funds supplied by the Hungarian soviet republic, which sent a subsidy also to Hamburg.

Speaking at meetings of the Independent Socialists in Berlin, Haase and Hoffmann urged the workers to prepare for the establishment of a proletarian dictatorship.

COPENHAGEN, July 1.
Hamburg reports that Lettow von Vorbeck's troops occupied the city without fighting.

BERLIN, June 30.
Herr Noske has prohibited the sale of arms or ammunition in districts under martial law. He has ordered acts of terrorism and interruption of traffic on railways to be most strongly suppressed.

Following the food disturbances excesses occurred at Bielefeld. The mob occupied the Town Hall and Railway station, and forced a number of works to close down. It seized quantities of rifles and ammunition.
Two were killed and a number injured.

THE BOLSHIEVIST WAR.

LONDON, July 1.
Reuter learns that the Bolsheviks continue to advance on the eastern front. They are now two days march from Perm, and have crossed the Kama river. General Kolchak's retreat continues without much fighting.

COPENHAGEN, July 1.
Helsingfors reports that escaped officers from Petrograd declare the Bolsheviks recently arrested 800 persons and subsequently slaughtered them with machine-guns at the Peter and Paul fortress. The bodies were thrown in the Neva. The total number arrested is over 18,000 which is reported to include all the foreigners. The famine-stricken population is desperate. The anti-Soviet operation against the city filled them with dismay.

BERLIN, July 1.
A concentric advance of Lithuanian detachments from the north and the Lithuanian army from the south on Dvinsk, which is in Bolshevik hands, is progressing. Contingents have already effected a junction to the westward of the town.

LONDON, July 2.
Bolshevik communists claim they have captured Perm and also completely cleared out the Finns from the Olonetz sector.

VON DER GOLTZ.

BERLIN, July 1.
A Lithuanian official from Libau states that von der Goltz has entirely thrown the mask and that the Neider government has fled. He is openly making war with the imperial German forces and has established martial law at Riga and proclaimed himself governor-general.

HUNGARY.

COPENHAGEN, July 1.
Budapest reports that in accordance with the Allies' instructions, the Hungarian troops have begun to evacuate Czechoslovak territory.

NECROLOGY.

LONDON, July 1.
Sir John Brunner, chairman of Brunner Mond & Co., the alkali manufacturers, is dead at the age of 77.

SILVER.

LONDON, July 3.
Silver is quoted 53 1/2 to 53 3/4. There is a scarcity of offers. The market is steady.

LONDON, July 2.
The Silver market is steady with affair demand.

CRICKET.

LONDON, July 2.
The match Marylebone v. Oxford was drawn.

NEW CRUISER FOR HONGKONG.

ADMIRAL'S FLAGSHIP.

LONDON, July 3.
The new light cruiser "Hawkins" will be commissioned at Chatham on July 24 for service as the flagship of the commander-in-chief of the China station.

VIEWS AND NEWS OF HAVAS.

LONDON, July 1.

The announcement was premature that the Council of Four was to become a Council of Ten. It will be a Council of Five or Four, Messrs.
Lansing, Pichon, Balfour and Tittoni meet to-day to settle the point. A categorical denial is issued by the Japanese delegation stating there is not the slightest foundation for the extraordinary report that Japan and Germany had arranged a secret alliance which was eventually to include Russia to overthrow the Hohenzollern government. The delegation adds that the report originated with the German propaganda department. The public in the Allied and Associated countries is too intelligent to give any credence to such a story.

M. Clemenceau received a great ovation in the Chamber of Deputies for his Bill of ratification of the treaty. France will carry out the work of peace, he said, as she waged war, without flinching. A general peace would be a deceitful mirage unless France were prepared to make internal peace the foundation of external peace. Social Union remains the foundation of the country.

The Paris municipality honoured the peace delegates at a reception at which M. Poincare was present.
There were brilliant scenes at the hotel de ville.

The general tone of the Bourse is firm. French rentiers have made a further advance.

COTTON MILLS STILL IDLE.

LONDON, July 1.
An extraordinary situation in Lancashire has arisen owing to the refusal of the Operative Spinners Amalgamation to resume work in consequence of the decision of the council of the United Textile Workers. Consequent ly forty million spindles are still idle.
The spinners object to the new agreement being fixed for eighteen months.
There were disturbances at Burnley yesterday. Windows were smashed.
In some cases bands forced entrance into the factories and intimidated the workers. They removed the shuttles at several factories specially protected by police.

CELEBRATIONS IN LONDON.

LONDON, June 29.
Rejoicings broke out in London yesterday on the appearance in the newspapers of Reuter's announcement of the conclusion of peace.
Salvoes of gunfire were heard. Six bands played the National Anthem.
The King spoke, concluding "I join you all in thanking God." Crowds at various points vented their feelings by singing, dancing, cheering, and discharging fireworks. There was a great display of searchlights in the evening, which concentrated their beams over the Palace, Warships and naval stations were beflagged.
They fired a salute of 101 guns and blew their sirens.

LONDON, July 2.

The royal proclamation announcing peace will be publicly read this morning with all the ancient pomp and ceremony. A procession will form at St. James's Palace, composed of the Deputy Earl Marshall, the Heralds Pursuivants, all wearing magnificent tabards, trumpeters,
and macebearers, and proceed to the city. The proclamation will be read at the Palace in Trafalgar Square, at Temple Bar, (where the heralds have to ask permission to enter the city) at Cheapside and at the Royal Exchange. Trumpets will sound.
This ceremony is usually reserved for accessions and coronations.

LAWN TENNIS.

LONDON, July 1.
The lawn tennis championships at Wimbledon are nearly over. In the semifinals of the ladies' singles, Mrs.
Satterthwaite (England) beat Mrs.
Beamish (England) 6/4 10/8. Mrs.
Beamish played with an injured ankle.
Miss Suzann Legien (France) beat Miss Ryan (California) 6/4 7/5. In the gentlemen's singles, Kingscote
(England) beat Garland (America)
6/1 6/4 2/6 5/7 6/4.

In the gentlemen's semifinal Paterson
(Australia) beat Ritchie 6/1 7/5 1/6 6/3. This was the only set the Australian lost in reaching the finals.

GOLD SHIPMENTS.

NEW YORK, July 1.
Recent gold shipments were $750,000 to Ceylon, $1,300,000 to China, and $500,000 to Japan. All American dollars.

TO-DAY'S CABLES.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

THE TOTALISM IN U.S.A.

NEW YORK, June 30.
Although the federal officials have announced that the wartime prohibition measures will be strictly enforced from midnight, violation is openly threatened in New York and other cities to enable test cases to be taken in the courts. Elaborate obsequies for King Alcohol have been arranged at many hotels, restaurants, and clubs to-night.

FRENCH FLYERS FALL.

PARIS, June 30.
Lieut. Lemaire, flying from Paris to Dakar across the Sahara desert, crashed when 400 miles from Dakar.
He and his passenger were unhurt
but the machine was smashed.
[Dakar is a pleasant little town on the coast of French West Africa, according to a member of the China Mail staff who has been there. The crash must have occurred not far north of the Senegal river.]

HUMAN DEBRIS OF WAR.

SCATHING CRITICISM BY HAIG.

LONDON, July 1.
Giving evidence before the committee of inquiry on pensions administration, Marshal Haig scathingly denounced the present system of providing for sufferers by the war.
He declared that many disabled officers are absolutely starving.
Soldiers' families are living in abject poverty. He urged a more generous State provision for such sufferers, including flat rate of at least £2
weekly to totally disabled men.

FLYING TO NEW YORK.

LONDON, July 2.
The Air Ministry announces that up to one o'clock in the afternoon the R44 had covered 430 nautical miles out of the 3100 to New York, maintaining an average speed of 42 knots. There was a thick fog but all was well.

LONDON, July 2.
The R34 carries thirty people in its historic flight. The commander is Major G. H. Scott. There are seven other officers. Brigadier E. M.
Maitland, senior officer of the airship department of the Admiralty, travels with it as an admiral does in a flagship. Lieut.-commander Lansdowne of the American navy is travelling as a passenger. The remainder consist of noncoms and air force men. The airship is 639 feet long and 80 wide. She lifts thirty tons and carries 5,000 gallons of petrol. She is fitted with five Maori engines and has five generous food supply aboard. The journey is from East fortune to Hazelhurst, Long Island,
New York, where the American navy has arranged a large landing ground for the R34. The journey is 1,500 miles longer than the aeroplane route from Newfoundland.

The airship R34 left Scotland for America at 1/48 this morning.

FUGILISM.

LONDON, June 30.
At the National Sporting Club for the bantam-weight championship of Britain, (twenty rounds) Walter Ross of Glasgow beat Tommy Noble
of Bermondsey in the tenth round.
Noble was the holder of the belt.

TURKS SEE PARIS.

PARIS, July 1.
The Turkish delegation, leaving Paris on July 3, are permitted to remain a few days to see Paris.
They will probably be recalled later.

FRANCE'S REASSURING TREATY.

PARIS, July 2.
Le Journal says that under the Anglo-Franco-American treaty, Britain is bound to defend France only if the United States take up arms and use force. Intervention will occur if the articles of the peace treaty providing for the disarmament of Rhineland prove insufficient to protect France.

PARIS, July 1.
It is pointed out that the Anglo-American agreement promising succour to France in the event of German aggression must be ratified by the Governments of America and Britain, after which it will be submitted to the council of the League of Nations which is expected to authorise the agreement. This ratification is designed to avoid delays in consulting the Council should occasion arise for immediate action.

SCOTTISH LETTER.

LABOUR AND MAY DAY.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

April 7.
In Scotland the Labour demonstrations on May Day passed off very quietly, indeed almost tamely. Even in Glasgow, that centre of the Reds, it was "just a day off and a walk."
In Edinburgh the procession was postponed until Sunday, the organisers knew that it was hopeless to get a good number during the week. Nowhere were there any enthusiasts. The "great day" was nothing more than a procession to shine. One could not help comparing the procession with the May Day celebrations of old-time Merrie England which one reads about in the books. There was nothing joyous about the proceedings, nothing picturesque. In spite of red ties, red rosettes, red banners, they were drab affairs, and the "Red Flag" is surely one of the most melancholy political songs ever written.

UNIVERSITY HONOURS.

The Senatus of the University of Glasgow have resolved to offer the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity to the Rev. Thomas Barclay, M.A., Perth, and the Right Rev. Bishop Brent, Philadelphia.

THE FRIEND AND ADVISER OF

R.L.S.

The death is announced of Mr.
Charles Baxter, W.S., for many years a familiar figure in Edinburgh social, legal, and literary life, but perhaps best known to a wider circle as the life-long and trusted friend of Robert Lewis Stevenson. Baxter and Stevenson were at Edinburgh Academy together, and while at Edinburgh University were members of the Speculative Society, an old institution in which Stevenson, as one of the Presidents, had Lord Brougham as a predecessor, and Baxter, as Secretary, could claim that he sat in the seat of Sir Walter Scott. "Charles Baxter," says Stevenson, "is the only person I ever knew who can both make helpful suggestions, and is able to hold his tongue when he has none to offer." Indeed, he confesses that if he had consulted Baxter at the beginning of the famous and deplorable quarrel with Hensley would never have happened.

DUNOTTAR CASTLE.

Vicount Cowdray, whose wife is proprietress of "Dunottar and Birse," has bought Dunottar Castle from Commander J. W. G. Innes, R.N.
Within the Castle the Scottish regiment was hid during Cromwell's invasion, and its safe removal by the wife of the minister of Kneff is one of the romances of Scottish History.
It was also identified with the persecutions suffered by the Covenant-ers.

THE PITFALLS OF THE SCOTS

TONGUE.

It is notoriously dangerous for those who have not the great privilege of being born in Scotland to attempt to ornament their speech with Scots words. Mr. Daniels, Secretary of the U.S. Navy is the most recent example. In the course of an address to young American officers who are taking a postgraduate course at Edinburgh University, he said: "When they return to their own country they will bring not merely the knowledge they had acquired, but they would bring the 'boniness' the thrift, the thoroughness, and the steadiness of character which were the chief virtues of that great country of Scotland." With great courage, a young Edinburgh lady afterwards inquired of Mr. Daniels what he meant by "boniness"; and the translation
he gave of the word was "cheerful-with a serious aspect." When further asked if this was the American use of the word, he replied, with fine nonchalance, "I don't know whether it's American or not."

THE KILT IN THE COMMONS.

When Major Wood, the new member for Central Aberdeen, took his seat in the House of Commons this week, he created quite a stir by being introduced and sworn in his kilt. He does not, however, create a precedent by attending Parliament in Highland dress. The late Col.
Denham Campbell, when member for North Ayrshire used to attend the House during the war in the kilt of his regiment, the Black Watch.

A SCOTTISH SCULPTOR.

The death took place at Edinburgh, after a long illness, of Mr.
W. Grant Stevenson, R.S.A. While still a student he won a competition with his design for a Burns statue at Kilmarnock, this success decided his course of life, till then he had swayed between painting and the plastic arts. He executed other statues of Burns for Denver and Chicago. A third statue, that of Wallace on the School Hill at Aberdeen, is the largest of its kind in Scotland. To the general public Mr.
Stevenson was best known as a recounteur and his published stories in dialect.

THE PRINCE—OUR BROTHER.

(By William Harvey, Provincial Grand Master of Forfarshire.)
The Craft over the land this day
Adorns the Lodge with garlands gay,
And England shouts in brave array.
"Hail, Mason Prince!"
Their hopes, and grace!

Our Prince and Brother there's our prayer—
May Boaz build thy Royal altar
In strength, may peace and pleasure thine be,
Thou art all that's good,
May wealth and power be thine to share,
Our eyes are fixed on thee,
Our hearts are thine to share.

In spite of what the Pulp asserts,
May Jacobin Masonic hearts
Establish thee, thou lat of pairs—
Prince of the free;
An' loyalty true a' the airts
Encompass thee!

Thou'lt learn the knock o' Rule and Line,
The Square, the Compasses, the Sign;
Be thou what Masons ne'er maun tine.

Faith, Hope, and Love—
Their three great symbols o' divine
Grand Lodge above!

So, Brother Masons, raise your hand!
This day the highest in the land Joins with the humblest: tak' his oath.

AN AMATEUR INTERNATIONAL.

Those who have advocated amateur international football matches according to the Association code are likely to see their wishes fulfilled next season. The English authorities have taken the matter in-hand, and have the driving force necessary to carry it to a successful issue.
The feeling in favour of amateur engagements is stronger in England than in Scotland, which is what one would expect seeing that the cult of Association football has a firmer hold in the Universities and public schools across the Border than in the case here in Scotland. Amateurism with us is mainly embodied in Queen's Park F.C., and the internationalists, therefore, may possibly resolve themselves into glorified Cornishmen versus Queen's struggles. Not that this would be a bad thing, for, as a matter of fact, the Cornishmen visits to Hampden are among the choicest recollections of our Association football.

GOLF IN BABYLON.

A Scottish officer in Mesopotamia writes home about "quite a good golf course" three miles from Bagdad.
The greens, he says, "are square-patches of sand, the fairway called mud, and the hazards earth bunkers or dried scrub." The vocabulary of the little Arab: caddies consists of "dover, iron, mullie, putter, steady, ball, good shot, and subbi."
They have also picked up "several phrases common to golfers' bunkers, but not found in the English dictionary."

GLENLEAGH GOLF COURSE.

The new golf course at Glenleagh is thoroughly, almost aggressively Scottish, "laid out on ground whose features are characteristic of all that is best in the Scottish uplands, and planned by the greatest of Scottish golfers, James Braid, it carries the Scottish atmosphere even to the names of the holes. Golfers from the South will be puzzled over most of them, when they come to play there."

STATE OF GERMANY.

LONDON, June 30th. The reports of British officers on the economic conditions prevailing in Germany have been issued in a White Paper. Describing a visit to Saxony in April, the officers report that Germany possesses a sound case for obtaining early relief. There is a genuine shortage of staple foodstuffs. The health of the population has suffered seriously in the last three years, and the state has been rendered almost helpless by the loss of its labour. When the working classes can no longer be trusted to keep peace.

LETTS AND ESTHONIANS.

COPENHAGEN, June 30th. The Lettish Press Bureau states that the German Baltic Division suffered three defeats at the hands of Esthonian and Lettish troops, last week, and have been practically destroyed. The Lettish troops have reached Jaegle, nine miles from Riga. The Germans are evacuating Riga where the Lettish Ministry has been dislodged and the War Minister arrested. M. Neidra has fled to Latvia where he has been arrested. He has escaped and taken refuge with the Imperial German troops, encamped six miles from Libau.

COPENHAGEN, June 30th. The German fleet, according to the reported scuttling of the warships in German ports.

PARIS, June 30th. The Allied Admirals, including Rear Admiral Sir Lionel Lalor, are conferring in regard to the disposal of the remaining German warships. All the great Powers, excepting France, who direct the distribution of the vessels, are in favour of their being broken up. The question of their destruction will assume a more acute form when the handing over of the remaining warships of the first Dreadnought type now in Germany comes up 60 days from the signature of the Peace Treaty.

INDIANS IN SOUTH AFRICA.

LONDON, June 30th. In the House of Commons, replying to Mr. T. J. Bennett, in regard to the reconnection with Transvaal Indians in the Transvaal, Mr. Clements said that it was a matter of controversy as to how far the Act continued the limitation of the rights of legal rights of Indians in the Transvaal or merely prevented the Indians from evading existing legislation. Anyhow, he sincerely trusted it would not have the suggested effect of creating resentment in India.

He explained that the Government had paid very considerable attention to this most urgent and important question, in view of the relieving of the public and commercial world of this impediment at the earliest opportunity consistent with the safety of the country.

EARLIER TELEGRAMS.

(Reuter's Service to the China Mail.)

THE HOME PROGRAMME.

LONDON, July 1st. In the House of Commons, Mr. Bonar Law announced that it had been decided to hold Peace thanksgiving services all over the country on July 6th. Their Majesties would attend the service at St. Paul's. The members of both Houses would be invited to it. It was further announced that when the thanksgiving services would be held in London in which the Navy, the Army, the Merchant Marine, etc., would be represented. American troops would be invited to participate. He hoped the day of general rejoicing would be observed throughout the country and the Empire.

PREMIER'S PARLIAMENTARY RECEPTION.

LONDON, June 30th. There was a memorable scene on the occasion of the Prime Minister's reception to Parliament on his return from Paris. The large crowd assembled outside his official residence in Downing Street filled the streets as far as Whitehall. The cheering began as Mr. Lloyd George was seen to enter his car. The vehicle proceeded with difficulty, the people pressing round and giving the Premier a tremendous ovation.

These demonstrations were renewed by the Members of the House of Commons when the Premier entered the Chamber. Almost the entire House rose and cheered repeatedly, waving order-papers. The Liberal Opposition and the Labourites momentarily remained seated, but after they were constantly enjoined to do honour to the Premier, Sir Donald Maclean and most of his followers participated amid redoubled cheering, in the cheering of which most of the Labourites joined.

The exceptions were the Liberal, Commander Keagworthy and Mr. J. M. Hogg. The members then broke out into the National Anthem, in the singing of which the occupants of the galleries and the reporters joined.

After three cheers, Sir Donald Maclean welcomed and congratulated Mr. Lloyd George on his return from as arduous and responsible labours as any British Minister has ever undertaken. (Loud cheers.)

The Premier, who looked pale and tired, was again given an ovation on rising. He movingly acknowledged his reception and referred to the Peace as the most comprehensive and most far-reaching document ever concluded, whether from the standpoint of the number and might of the contracting nations or the variety of interests, or whether they regarded it from the standpoint of the great and promising new experiment embodied in the Treaty, which might alter the whole character of affairs in the world and give a new turn to the dream of mankind.

The Premier alluded to the gigantic character of the interests involved and the fear that had been felt lest any failing on his part should prejudice the country. He announced the Government's intention to introduce a Bill, on July 2nd, if possible, giving effect to the Treaty. (Loud cheers.) Mr. J. A. Seddon hoped the fact would be recorded that Mr. Neil Maclean (Labourite), on this historic occasion, had remained seated and thus shown respect to the Crown to which he had signed fealty.

The Cross shall rise on us and on the world. The preacher closed by quoting the lines of Owen Seaman:— "Ye that have faith to look with fearless eyes. Beyond the tragedy of a world at a strife. And know that out of death and night shall rise The dawn of ampler life: Rejoice, whatever anguish rend your heart. That God has given to you the priceless power To live in these great times, and bear your part. In Freedom's crowning hour. That ye may tell your sons—who see the light: High in the heavens—their heritage to take: 'I saw the powers of darkness put to flight: I saw the morning break.'"

AT THE JEWISH SYNAGOGUE.

At the "Ohel Leah" Synagogue there was a large attendance at the thanksgiving service. Following the service Mr. D. S. Gubay read the following sermon: "Peace be within thy walls: And prosperity within thy palaces." "For the sake of my brethren and friends I will now speak of Peace within thee." "For the sake of the house of the Lord Our God will I seek thy Good."

"And thou shalt see thy children's children and Peace on Israel." "Abundant peace have they who love thy Law, and none shall obstruct them." "Thy Lord will give strength unto His people: The Lord will bless His people with peace."

Brethren—How beautiful these verses are, they seem to appear like a song on a golden ring in the order I read them to you. There are several lovely Hymns and Psalms but there are none so harmonious as these few verses, to be read on this grand occasion, for they respond so beautifully to the Prayers we have offered to God in the past four years of troublous times. Our merciful Father has very answered our supplications for a peace that establishes Right over Might. He has heard the cry of the millions of unfortunate men, women and children who were crushed under the heels of a tyrannical foe and liberated them from the horrors of a continual terrible war. It is for this that we assemble to-day in His House to render unto Him our heartfelt thanks in establishing peace within our walls so that we may resume our normal conditions in the various vocations we follow which spell prosperity to us and our countries. The words prosperity and health are the original meanings of the Hebrew word "Shalom." Most probably the first verse was written on the time of Zechariah for the very fact that the Psalmist invokes his friends and brethren for their own good to follow the prophets injunction to love truth and peace betrays the period on which the verse was written.

In the time when the Jewish Fathers imparted to their disciples their knowledge and experiences, they have also instructed them in the truth of some of their grand axioms for the guidance of the conduct of their life on Earth. Simon the son of Gamaliel has taught his pupils that the world is preserved by three things: Truth, Judgement and Peace and the last of the men of the great Synagogue told his scholars that the world exists by virtue of three things: The Law, Service and acts of Benevolence. The last but not the least of our great Sages tells us that love peace and pursue peace for it is one of those blessings which God bestows upon us for He is the Creator of Peace. Did our Enemies give heed to such injunctions? No—Because it was the desire of one man to let the war dogs loose in order to conquer the most fertile countries in Europe and the surmised that his prowess in conquering the world depended entirely upon military glory. But the Lord willed it not. Nevertheless He has taught us that the peace of the world depends entirely upon labour industry and commerce in accordance to the Laws of Equity. It has taught us to give to our children a sound education that they may learn and practice what they owe to God, to Society and to their rights and to their duties. Then we shall see our children living united in peace, progressing in their vocations which eventually leads to National prosperity. For there can be no obstacles on their way to prosperity simply because they follow the Law and thus they gain an abundant peace as sung by one of the Psalmists in the Psalter.

Hope in the Lord be of good courage and He shall strengthen thy heart, for the Lord will give strength to thee to carry thy work with His blessing of Peace, for the Lord turns His countenance towards them and give thee Peace and also peace on the Land. Now that the plague of war has quenched its fury and the time of war has passed; the time of peace has come let us not forget that this is the day which the Lord has appointed we will rejoice and be glad therein and give our loyal support to the Government under whose wings we Jews were sheltered from the onslaught of a once formidable foe.

Following a memorial Prayer for those fallen in battle was said: O God, Who art full of compassion, Who dwellest on high, grant perfect rest beneath the shelter of Thy divine presence, in the exalted places among the holy and pure who shine as of the brightness of the firmament, to the sons of our Congregation—who have bravely laid down their lives for their King and Country. We beseech Thee, Lord of Compassion, shelter them for evermore under the cover of Thy wings, and let their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Lord is their inheritance; may they rest in peace. And let us say, Amen.

O God of the spirits of all flesh, in whose hand are the souls of the living and the dead may the death of Thy brave children be precious in Thy sight. On land and in the air, on sea and under the sea, they were swifter than eagles and stronger than lions to do the will of their King and Country. May their death mean the end of all strife and conflict, and make These wars to cease unto the earth.

O Lord, who healest the broken-hearted and kindest up the wounds grant consolation unto the mourners. O Strength and support them in their grief and mourning; and remember them for a long and good life. He will destroy death for ever: and the Lord God will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the reproach of His people shall He take away from off the earth: for the Lord hath spoken it.

AT THE R.C. CATHEDRAL.

Over two thousand people attended the special service held at the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception, yesterday morning. The Rev. Bishop Pozzoni, officiated, and was assisted by over 30 Fathers from the French and Spanish Provinces, the Sanatorium at Pokfulam, the Jesuits of Chiung and Rev. Fr. Vergilia, of Macao. There were present in their official capacity, Mr. Hauchecorne (Consul for France), Chevalier Etes (Consul for Italy), Mr. E. M. V. R. de Sousa (Consul for Portugal), Mr. J. M. Alves (Consul for Brazil), Mr. J. F. Ede de Silva (Consul for Mexico), Major Bowen and Inspector L. d'Almada of the Police Reserve.

The service commenced with the rendering of Gloria in Excelsis by the choir, followed shortly after by the Ave Verum. Anima Christi (Pozzoni) was sung, as a solo by the Rev. Fr. Grampra. The choir next gave O Salutaris Tota. The singing of the Te Deum by the choir and the congregation brought forth a great volume of harmonious sound. The choir then sang Tantum Ergo. The service, concluded with a very fine rendering of the National Anthem in full.

Pere Robert preached the following sermon from the text "Glory be to God on High, and on Earth peace to men." My Lord, my dear Brethren—It was thus that the greatest event in history, the birth of our Saviour, was announced to humanity. "God and Peace." Our holy Scripture books pronounce that word "Peace" only after having invoked the name of God, because no real peace can exist unless it be given by the Author of peace.

During five years our hands have been raised in supplication to Heaven, and our voices have repeated Do pacem Domine—God grant us peace. We had learnt to appreciate peace by the sufferings we had endured in the midst of the horrors of war, that is to say, by the deprivation of Peace. But what is Peace? Peace, says St. Augustine, is the tranquillity of order. Order reigns when everything is in its proper place. Materially, order reigns when all physical laws are observed; morally, when all moral laws are strictly kept; when Justice and Charity, those twin-sisters of Peace, are respected by all nations.

Why, therefore, did Peace cease to exist? What was the cause of the upheaval of order amongst men? After a last consideration it is obvious, my dear brethren, that one thing alone could disturb that admirable equilibrium of peace—"selfishness," which is the source of all the passions and the principle of every vice. It is not necessary to retrace the history of the bloody conflict which has just terminated; that history is well-known to you. The ambition which caused that terrible disaster has now received its chastisement; and it is because this chastisement has restored order by punishing the selfishness of misguided peoples that we receive the blessing of Peace.

"Peace and Victory." Such is today, the cry of our hearts; the thrilling consolation that fills our souls; the overflowing joy that the whole world re-echoes today in its songs of gladness. "Peace and Victory," and let us say "Peace, Fruit of Victory." The Allied nations are holding great festivals. Our own city vibrates in union with the songs of triumph and glory of our victorious armies. Peace has come; that greatest of blessings which God grants to nations as well as to individuals. And thus, in his own right day of the birth of Christ, we repeat in the sincerest of our hearts "Glory to God and Peace to men."

The victory which was to assure peace to the nations, it has its principles in the law of order finds its realisation in an absolute union. It is by the union of the Allied forces that we have been able to restore peace to the world; and this union was not less necessary than force, to cause force without complete union did not give us victory and would certainly never have given it to us. It was by the acceptance of discipline of unity and the obedience of all to one supreme command that we recognised the sovereignty of order of that order without which the most heroic sacrifices would have remained sterile; of that order upon which alone depends the divine majesty of Peace.

Peace in glory, victory in the triumph of Good over Evil, order in the obedience to the law; unity in the disciplined action—these have been the crowning of our sacrifices, the reward of our efforts in the war which the Allied nations have won. Let us now transport the same principles, the same tactics, and the same strategy to another battlefield. Let us apply these successful methods to the combat that each one of us must sustain in this life in order to attain that end which the Creator demands of his creature.

We Catholics can realise fully the plan which assures victory in the great combats. This unity of command, without which the real peace of our souls is impossible, without which Heaven would be deaf to our entreaties, we have in our doctrine, in our discipline, in the doctrinal infallibility of our Chief.

Selfishness, ambition, and pride, bring about the ruin of individuals as well as that of nations. In the direction of souls as in the government of peoples, there must be one chief, because in this only do we find discipline and order, by this only do we receive promise of victory, and this only can obtain for us that eternal peace which is the enjoyment of the vision of God. And this Chief who is guiding us safely on the agitated sea of this world is the Pontiff of Rome. It is against this solitary rock that all divisions, schisms, and human contradictions have been shattered for the last twenty centuries.

Unum vult et unus pastor. Christ in His Church, by the voice of His representative on earth speaks with the majestic authority which is given him by the Holy Ghost, the "Light of the Eternal Father." Glory to God the Author of peace, and Peace on earth to men of good will; to those who seek God and His Kingdom. May all those heroes who have won at the price of their blood this peace which we now possess repose in that other peace which has no end; in that immortal glory of which Heaven is the habitation.

In Pa—hope, force, and consolation of Christians; words written on all tombs, from those of the catamounts to those on the battlefield of the great war. Da pacem Domine, Grant us Victory, O Lord, in the combats of our faith, combats which will end only on that great day when "Thou wilt judge the living and the dead."

Grant us that peace which consoles, that peace which fortifies, that peace of the soul in God, and finally, that everlasting peace—the peace of Heaven and of Eternity.—Amen.

AT THE SIKH TEMPLE.

At the Sikh Temple, Wanchai, yesterday there was a large gathering of the Indian Sikh community. A special thanksgiving service was held to commemorate the signing of peace. The priest of the 22nd Punjab conducted the proceedings and made special reference to the peace obtained after four years of terrible warfare. He paid a great tribute to the memory of the Sikhs who fell fighting during the war. Prayers were also read for the fallen.

THE PARSEES SERVICE.

The Parsee community gathered at 21, Eliza Street yesterday. The priest, P. C. Sidhva officiated. He paid a tribute to the victorious allies and the signing of Peace. The priest referred to the fighting in Afghanistan and hoped the hostilities there would quickly cease.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHURCH.

Two services were held at St. Joseph's Church Garden Road. The first, the communion service, at 7.40 a.m. was well attended despite the bad weather. The beautiful invocation "send peace to all nations," and the Act of Consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus was very impressive. A Solemn Thanksgiving Mass was sung at 10 a.m. when a large congregation attended. The service was conducted by the Rev. Fr. A. Flazack who was supported by the choir, who very ably rendered Perost's "Te Deum." Mrs. Charlton, St. J. Sergt. Lyth and Mr. Fisher rendered the solos with beauty. The "Agnus Dei" (Lamb of God) was also sung appropriately, the last line being "dona nobis pacem" give us peace.

THANKSGIVING SERVICE.

ST. PETER'S CHURCH, WEST POINT.

The usual Congregation at St. Peter's Church, West Point, was yesterday supplemented by a number of Students from the Hongkong University, the Diocesan School and St. Stephen's College, when the Special Service of Thanksgiving took place. The Preacher (Rev. E. Martin M. A.) took as his text Psalm 85 "Righteousness and Peace have kissed each other." After making reference to the day of Thanksgiving, being suitably held on the King and Queen's Wedding Anniversary, the speaker recalled the power of Germany's year ago contrasting it to-day with her position among the nations today. None are so ready to give the Glory of our Peace and Victory to Almighty God as the great leaders of our Armies: them. We do well to turn to God in the hour of peace as we did in the days of danger. In conclusion the speaker emphasised the Call of recent events to a fresh resolve on the part of all Christians to greater attention to the honouring of God both in private and in public. By this means the League of Nations would become a real Temple of Peace, built of honest hearts and dedicated to the Great Ruler of Nations.

U.S.A. AND CHINESE TARIFF.

The American Consul-General has received instructions indicating that, while the government of the United States cannot give formal ratification to the revised tariff for China recently issued until the American Senate shall have passed upon the question, the Department of State at Washington of itself will not raise any objection to the prior enforcement of this tariff against American merchants and goods. All other treaty powers having accepted the revised tariff it is understood, therefore, that the tariff was to be published on July 1st and put into effect on August 1st next.

U. S. RED X.

The Chairman of the Hongkong Chapter of the American Red Cross has received a letter from the Chief of the Foreign Division of the American Red Cross in Washington in behalf of the division and of the general headquarters of the organization thanking the Hongkong Chapter particularly for services during the war and especially with respect to work done in Siberia. The letter indicates that the work of the chapters of the American Red Cross in China has evoked national interest among all people concerned in Red Cross work.

THE SHANGHAI TROUBLES.

The keeping of the peace in Shanghai seems to have been done not wisely but too well. The International Municipality is responsible, of course, for the maintenance of order, but it might be well to remember that Shanghai is, when all is said and done, part of China. The problems, threats, and coercion used in the interests of the Japanese in suppressing the boycott are of very doubtful legality, so long as the boycott was conducted in an orderly manner. The Municipality has, of course, the right to forbid processions, but when a procession has passed peacefully through the French Settlement, and though the leaders are willing to obey the order to disperse, is pushed on by the throng behind, it seems to be about the most feasible possible course for the mounted police to charge it. The people who are inevitably injured in such a charge have in such circumstances no "nothing" to deserve it, and bloodshed is inevitable. If the Reuters' telegram published elsewhere is correct, the responsibility for the injuries done rests solely on the Shanghai police, who did not even suggest the obvious course to the leaders of the procession of turning down the next street and returning to the Chinese city. We do not believe that the boycott can do the Chinese any good whatever, but if they keep within the law in their manner of protesting it there is no justification for the methods used to suppress it. An indignant procession is, it is true, a dangerous thing, and to let it go on and gather forces as it goes, is sometimes to precipitate a disturbance. The Shanghai police, however, appear to have made sure of the disturbance without trying to avert it. The result furnishes an excuse for denying to the Chinese the right to make any public demonstration whatever, and presumably that is all that is wanted.—Japan Chronicle.
